UP Baguio:
Advancing knowledge in the service of Indigenous Peoples and the Nation

Prof. Raymundo D. Rovillos, Ph.D.
Chancellor, UP Baguio
UP Baguio’s Context

- A Constituent unit of the University of the Philippines system (a relatively young CU)

- An Arts and Sciences University

- Mandated to serve the Cordillera and northern Luzon

- Situated in an upland ecosystem with growing problems in resource management and vulnerability
Vision:

UP Baguio as a premier Arts and Sciences CU; making a crucial contribution to Cordillera and National Development
Mission:

UP Baguio as the lead institution in Cordillera Studies, Indigenous Studies, and Sustainability Science.
Integrative, Holistic and Interdisciplinary: Cordillera & Indigenous Studies

Research:
- Cordillera Studies
- Indigenous Studies
- Cordillera/NL

Extension:
- Curriculum Development of HEIs in CAR
- Engagement with NCIP, IPOs, NGO and Communities
- Policy Development at the regional, national and global levels

Curriculum & Instruction:
- Integration of Cordillera, ethnicity/indigenous issues, concepts in BA/BS and MA/MS programs

Archives Museum PIC
Milestones (2012-2014)
Book on Indigenous Studies (2014)

Unsettling Discourses
The Theory and Practice of Indigenous Studies

Proceedings of the 2013 International Seminar-Workshop on Indigenous Studies
The Cordillera Review: featuring IPRA and NCIP
Public Service & Community Extension
Consensus-building on Indigenous Studies (March 2012 and July-August 2014)

• Establish the Indigenous Studies Program under the Cordillera Studies Center
• Explore the institution of a Ph.D. in Indigenous Studies
• Sustain linkages with Universities here and abroad on Indigenous Studies
• Sustain public and community extension service on IP issues.
Acknowledgment

- Cordillera Peoples’ Alliance
- National Commission on Indigenous Peoples (NCIP)
- Task Force on Indigenous Peoples’ Rights
- Tebtebba Foundation
- UP System leadership under President Pascual
- International, national and regional (CAR) agencies and organizations
Padayon, UP Baguio
Thank You